PUBLIC NOTICE

It has come to our attention that there are people purporting to be agents of the Agriculture and Food Authority who are asking for kickbacks from our potential suppliers in order to be awarded tenders. These people are also extorting money from AFA Service Providers and Suppliers by demanding for bribes on awarded contracts.

We hereby notify the public that the Authority neither demands nor solicits bribes to award tenders. The award of tenders is carried out in accordance with the procedures laid out in the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act of 2015. AFA wishes to affirm our zero tolerance to corruption and adherence to National Values and Principles of Governance in Article 10 of the Constitution.

Any Supplier or member of the public who has been required to pay bribes or kickbacks in order to be awarded contracts or offer services to AFA should report such cases the relevant authorities including:
